Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. ## Scripture

Proverbs 3:1-8

New Revised Standard Version

My child, do not forget my teaching,
but let your heart keep my commandments;
for length of days and years of life
and abundant welfare they will give you.

Do not let loyalty and faithfulness forsake you;
bind them around your neck,
write them on the tablet of your heart.

So you will find favor and good repute
in the sight of God and of people.

Trust in the LORD with all your heart,
and do not rely on your own insight.

In all your ways acknowledge him,
and he will make straight your paths.

Do not be wise in your own eyes;
fear the LORD, and turn away from evil.

It will be a healing for your flesh and a refreshment for your body.

Blessing

Dear Friends,

I am writing this letter from the lodge porch at Camp Ohiyesa, the site of our annual Choir Camp. In front of me is the beauty of Fish Lake. In its calmness, it becomes a mirror capturing and then reflecting the serenity of all that surrounds us. Above me is the bluest of skies, broken up only by white puffs of clouds. I watch the grace of a string of Canadian Geese as they fly across the sky and splash into the lake. The scents of summer bring an overwhelming sense of connection to this beautiful place. And, as if we needed another reminder of the Spirit's presence, upon our arrival we were greeted by the arc of the most beautiful rainbow, stretching from one side of the lake to the other. When God said, "Now this - is good!" this must have been what God had in mind.

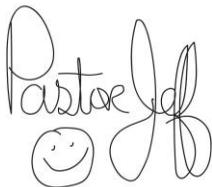

But it is what is happening in the next room that brings the biggest smile to my face. It is the voices of our High School Choir repeating the phrase, "May the Lord bless you and keep you" in perfect harmony. I can only hope that this becomes a prayer that these teenagers will carry with them throughout their lives. I pray that, because of coming to Choir Camp, these young people will have a reservoir of faith they can call upon forever. Camp is a special place!

This year marked the 62nd year that Royal Oak First United Methodist has held Choir Camp. Think about that. That is over 4,000 instances of young people have been given this experience and over 2,000 instances of adults helping to make it happen. It is an amazing legacy of which I am proud to be a small part. It is your true labor of love.

I just want to say thank you to all of you who helped make this week happen. From buying pasties from the Music Guild, to giving up a week of their summer to spend with these young people, and everything in between, you have made Christ's love real to 73 young people this week! You are a blessing!

By the way - only 357 days until choir Camp 2018! Who's going?

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Jeff
